Despite the length of Cooks expeditions. Very few of his men died from scurvy. Cook was able to prevent scurvy in his men by stocking his ships with sauerkraut. Cook forced his men to eat it daily and he made them eat fresh foods at port stops At first, some sailors didnt want to follow Cooks dietary rules. It wasnt until 1795, sixteen years after Cooks death that lime juice was issued to all british naval vessel. as a result, scurvy began to disappear among british seamen, just as it had with Cooks crews. (15 corrections)
