listening to the call of adventure colter roamed the mountains and the woods. While Colter was hunting beaver in the Rocky mountains in 1807 he heard a strange rumbling sound. suddenly, boiling water began to shoot up from the ground about three and one half yards away. Higher and higher it rose in a steamy column As hot burning droplets of water began to rain down on Colters head and shoulder's colter stared in amazement He had just witnessed his first geyser
