

“Do It Yourself” Narrative

- Choose one of the prompts from the “PAT Practice” sheet that you want to write about.
- Complete the Personal Narrative Graphic Organizer to the best of your ability to help you plan ahead.
- Write for two class periods to the best of your ability. Your goal is to write a five-paragraph narrative.

Writing Situation:

An injury can leave your body with permanent scars and lasting memories.

Writing Directions:

Write an essay to appear in a student newsletter that shares a story about a memorable injury that happened to you.

Writing Situation:

In life, sometimes you succeed and sometimes you fail.

Writing Directions:

Write a blog that explains times in your life when you experienced success, when you experienced failure, and how those experiences have impacted who you are.

Writing Situation:

A good or bad meal with other people is the perfect recipe for a memorable experience.

Writing Directions:

Write an article for a food magazine where you reflect upon some memorable meals and the people that you shared those meals with.

Writing Situation:

Pets can become a beloved member of any family.

Writing Directions:

Write an article for the Messenger-Inquirer that shares memories about your favorite pet or pets.